A party may check-in from 3pm until 10pm on the day of their arrival and must checkout by Midday on the day of their departure or by 10am if departing on Monday, 22 July 2019 when they must leave the pitch in a clean and tidy state. Please report to reception on your arrival.

Camping payment for Under 25s

There is no charge for the camping itself.

Camping payment for Over 25s

You agree to pay the total fee in full immediately following receipt of our invoice (which shall be provided on booking).

As soon as reasonably practicable following your departure, and in any event no later than 1 August 2019, we shall refund your Security Deposit or advise you if the Security Deposit will not be refunded (in full or in part).

We reserve the right to refuse any booking. Bookings are not transferable to any other person. Our arrangements are effective from the date our contract is formed until we have either returned your Security Deposit, or notified you that your Security Deposit shall not be returned. We will issue a proposal document to you confirming your accommodation details and receipt of your Security Deposit (Proposal). Please check all paperwork that we send you carefully and contact us immediately if you have any queries.

We reserve the right to require you and or your party to leave The Open Camping Village (without compensation being payable or any money being repaid) if it is deemed necessary by us, at our sole discretion, where:

Changes for reasons beyond our control

The OAB may decide that some changes to or cancellation of the contract may be necessary or required due to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances, which neither we nor our suppliers could avoid, acting reasonably. In these circumstances, you will not be entitled to compensation or damages.

In reference to adverse weather conditions, to clarify, this includes persistent heavy rain which results in the flooding of tents provided or The Open Camping Village as a whole and it is your responsibility to find alternative accommodation for yourself or any members of your party. If you are required to find alternative accommodation under this provision any fee paid to us and the Security Deposit will be refunded in full.
